MANAGER: Bette Avery, 121 Lund Farm Way, Brewster, MA 02631, 508-896-5800

Dear Exhibitors and Trainers,

The 2011 Woodsong Farm horse show series is upon us!

As always, we strive to provide you with a quality horse showing experience in an inexpensive and low-key environment that meets a variety of equestrian needs. Our horse shows offer: dust-free grounds, plenty of shade for exhibitors, easy and ample parking for trailers and cars, on-site food and drink available throughout the show, a variety of prizes and awards from which to choose, a large lawn area overlooking the show ring that is just for spectators, attractively designed courses over safe and appropriate jumps, and a year-end awards program for all levels that includes trainers too!

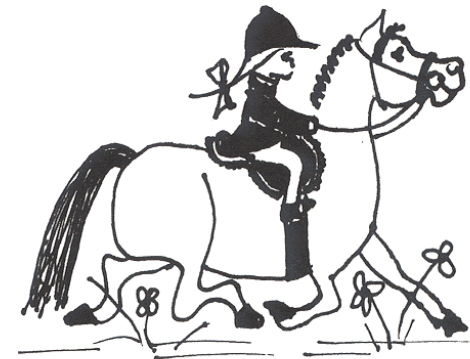

In an effort to continually enhance our program, we have made some changes and additions this year. We have added a trail class to the Open Walk-Trot Division and the Special Division. The Low Hunter Division has been modified and will now run as a single division with three height options: 2'3"-2'6"-2'9". Riders will select the height at which they would like to compete. It is permissible to ride all three division classes over fences of the same height or to compete over a variety of heights - for example: 2'3" for the first class and 2'6" for the second and third classes. The choice is yours!

Additionally, we want to encourage all riders to be more than just wonderful riders. We want to encourage them to possess fantastic horsemanship skills as well. Therefore, this year we are excited to implement a Horsemanship Award at three separate levels! We will be presenting an award to beginner riders, short stirrup riders and open riders. Be sure to read the insert in this program that showcases the complete details of this great new award!

We are looking forward to another great season and hope to share it with you!

Bette and Greta Avery
